CREEK

Surveyed Nov. 20, 1925

A diagram of a rectangular area, possibly representing a plot of land. On the left side, there is a wavy, irregular line. In the center of the rectangle, the number '10' is written vertically.

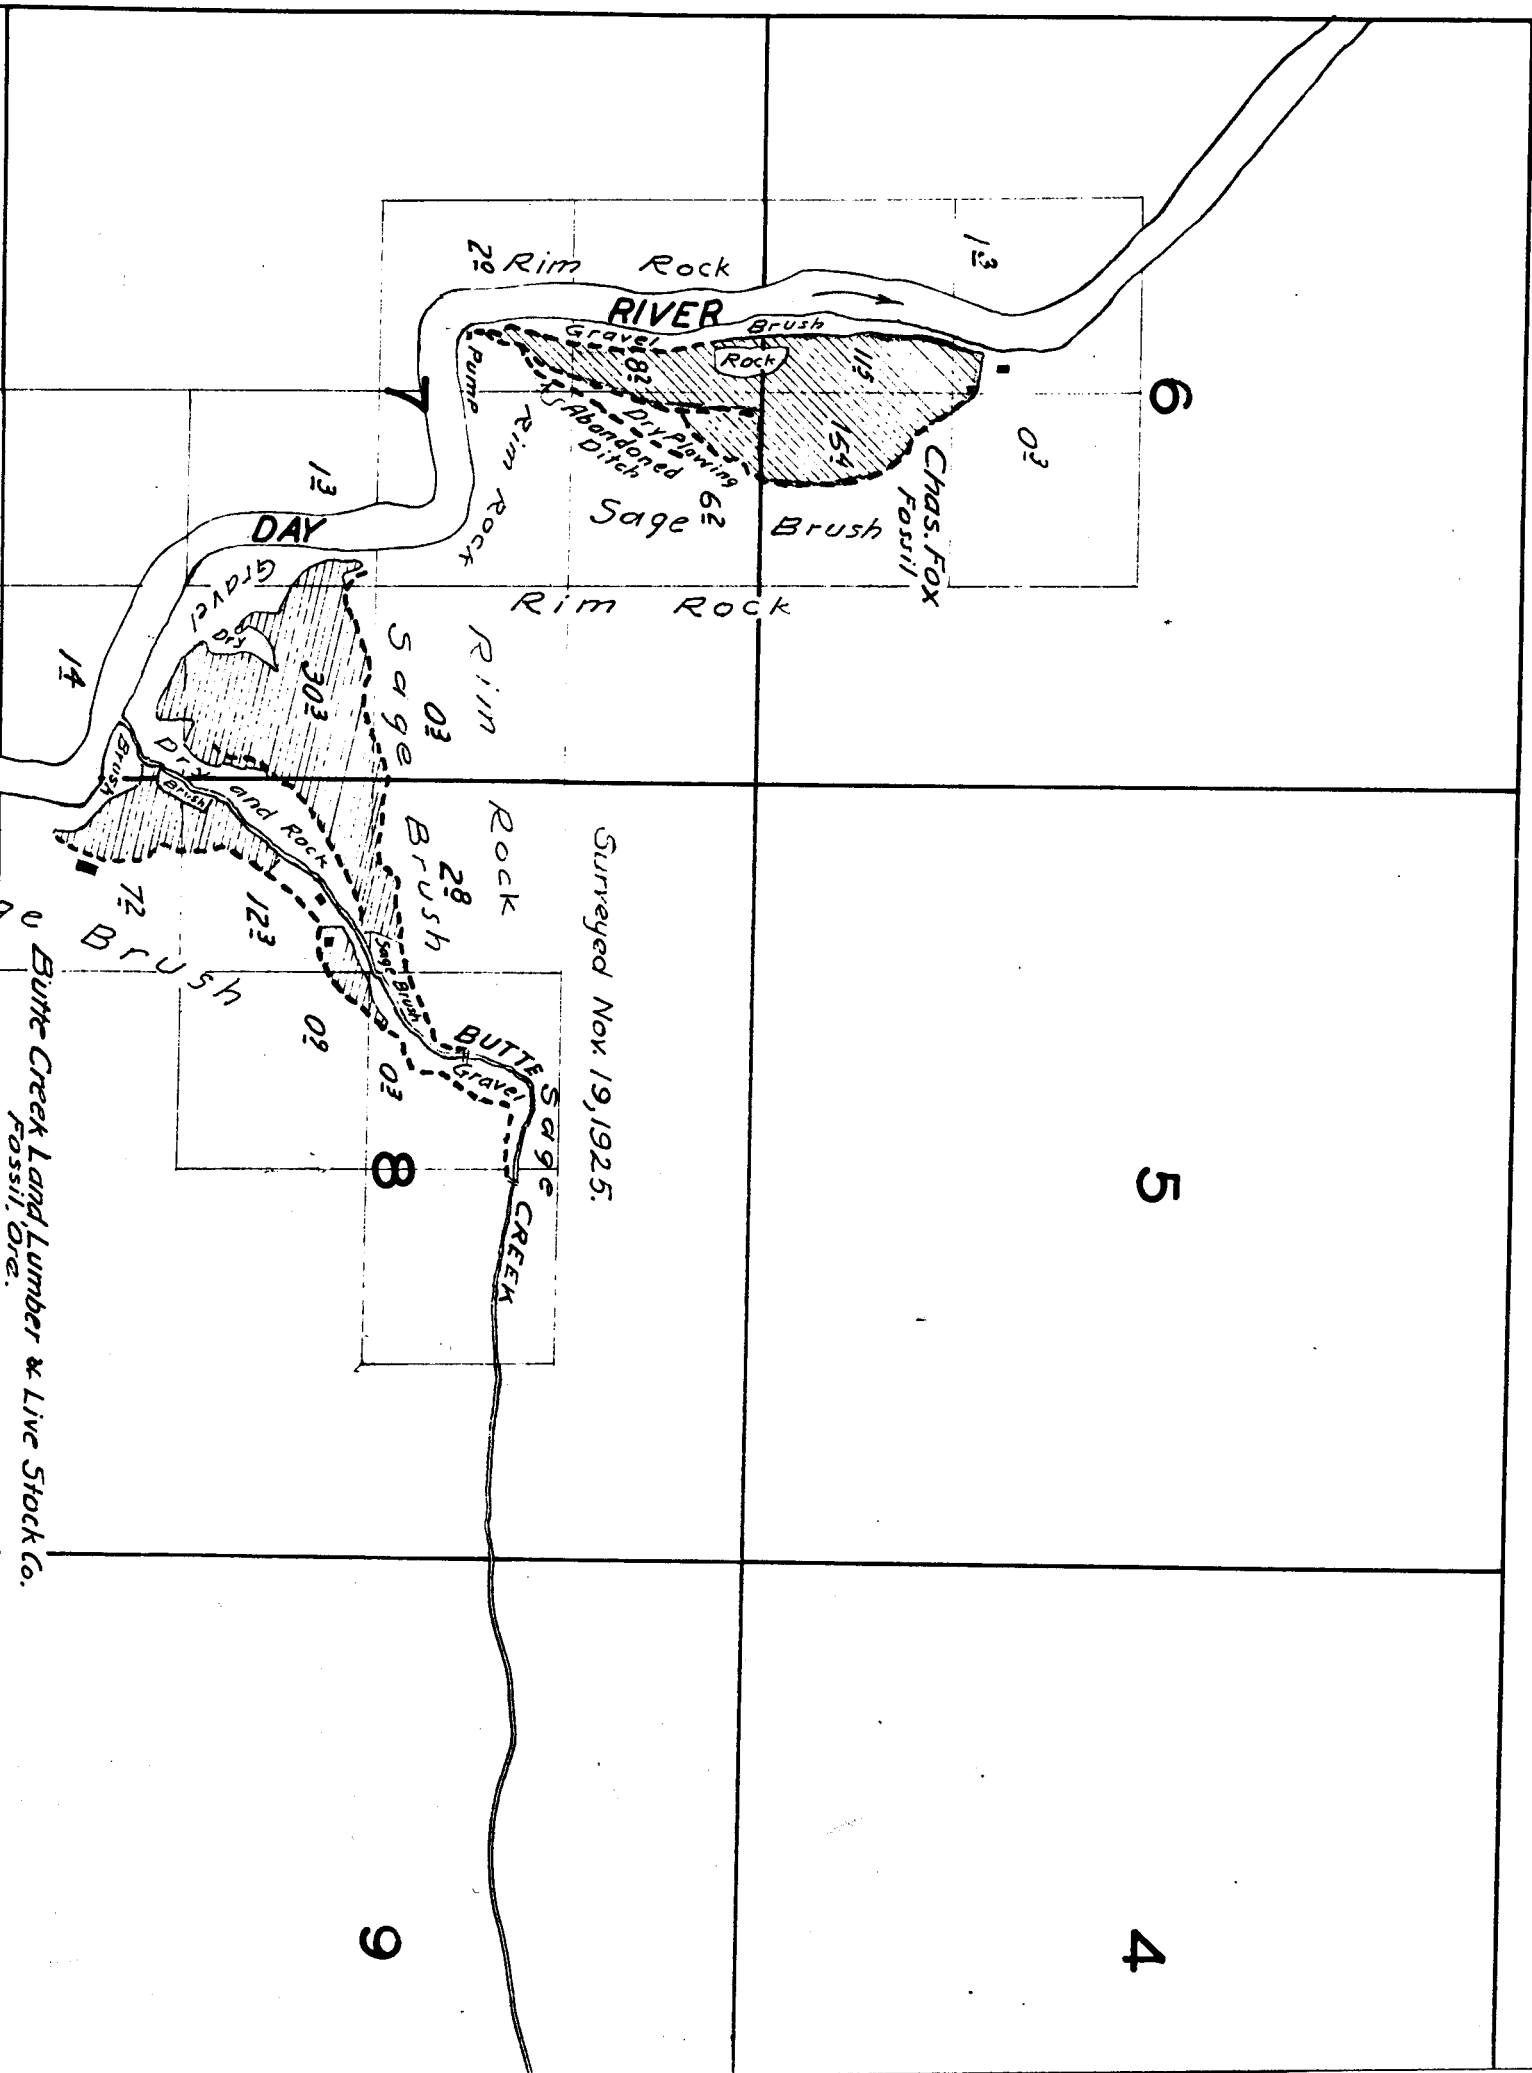

A hand-drawn sketch map of a landscape. A winding line represents a creek, labeled "Spring Creek" in a curved path. A small circle on the creek is labeled "Spring". A dashed line, possibly representing a road or boundary, runs parallel to the creek. The area is divided into sections by a vertical line. There are some numbers and letters scattered around, including "42", "K", "O", "C", "P", and "D".
