

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. EO - 93 - 06

RESCISSION OF STATE OF EMERGENCY FOR THE STATE OF OREGON DUE TO SEVERE, CONTINUING DROUGHT CONDITIONS

A state of emergency for the State of Oregon due to severe, continuing drought conditions was declared by the Governor in Executive Order No. EO-92-21 dated September 3, 1992. Significant rain and snow have since alleviated drought conditions. While drought conditions may continue on a more localized basis, the statewide drought declaration is no longer necessary.

IT IS ORDERED AND DIRECTED:

1. Executive Order No. EO-92-21 is rescinded.

Done at Salem, Oregon this 19th day of May, 1993.

GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

SECRETARY OF STATE

FILED

MAY 19 1993

PHIL KEISLING
SECRETARY OF STATE

