THIS AGREEMENT, Made and entered into this 21st day of Sept. 1910, by and between John H. Irwin, Clark Grubb, E. W. Dunn, Administrator of the Estate of Annie R. Curry, Deceased, J. V. Martin, Herman Davis, Charles Zimmerman, & J. F. Irwin, of Baker County, Oregon, owners of what is known as "The Curry Irrigation Ditch," parties of the first part, and Elsie W. Grubb of Baker County, Oregon, party of the second part

WITNESSETH: That the said parties of the first part, for, and in consideration of the covenants and agreements herein contained to be kept and performed by the party of the second part, hereby consent to the enlargement or extension of said Curry Irrigation Ditch to sufficient size to carry the additional water which may be appropriated, and for which permission has been obtained from the State Engineer to appropriate to second party.

In consideration of this agreement or consent by first parties, second party hereby agrees to pay her portion of all the expense of the survey, with former Application No. 682 earlier applied for, also with the same for enlarging and of regrading said ditch from Carson Creek to the head.

Said expense to be paid by second party in proportion to the amount of water she applies for and obtains.

It is also agreed between the parties hereto, that both the first and second parties are to share the expense of rebuilding flumes in proportion to the amount of water used by each individual consumer.

This agreement to be binding upon the heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns of the parties hereto.
