This development was reviewed and approved by the Water Resources Commission on July 19, 1991

Use of water under this permit as a primary source of municipal water shall end seven years after the date of permit issuance.

Use of water under this permit as an emergency source of municipal water shall commence seven years after the date of permit issuance. An alternate primary source of municipal water must be identified by that time. The emergency use shall occur only when needed to supplement a failure to obtain water from the primary source.

Within two years of permit issuance, the City shall obtain a pipeline connection to the Stayton water system and obtain a substantial portion of its municipal needs through that system.

Within one year from the date the Water Resources Commission adopts rules describing the schedules, standards and procedures for water conservation management plans by water suppliers, the city shall submit a plan which is consistent with said rules.

Within one year of permit issuance, the city shall prepare a plan/timetable for the Water Resources Commission which shall indicate the steps which the City intends to pursue to obtain a long-term water supply.

The well shall be constructed in accordance with the General Standards for the Construction and Maintenance of Water Wells in Oregon. The works shall be equipped with a usable access port, and may also include an air line and pressure gauge adequate to determine water level elevation in the well at all times. When required by the department, the permittee shall install and maintain a weir, meter, or other suitable measuring device, and shall keep a complete record of the amount of ground water withdrawn.

Within ten years of obtaining this permit, the permit holder shall submit the results of a pump test meeting the department's standards, to the Water Resources Department. The Director may require water level or pump test results every ten years thereafter.

Actual construction work shall begin on or before July 29, 1992, and shall be completed on or before October 1, 1994. Complete application of the water shall be made on or before October 1, 1995.

Failure to comply with any of the provisions of this permit may result in action including, but not limited to, restrictions on the use, civil penalties, or cancellation of the permit.

This permit is for beneficial use of water without waste. The water user is advised that new regulations may require use of best practical technologies or conservation practices to achieve this end.

By law, the land use associated with this water use must be in compliance with statewide land-use goals and any local acknowledged land-use plan.

The use of water shall be limited when it interferes with any prior surface or ground water rights.

Issued this date, JULY 29, 1991.
