Remarks: Requesting use of water for ~~1770~~ year around irrigation

The crop planted is being established with a chemical treatment that requires water. Insufficient water at this time means only that when the seedlings emerge too late in the season, they won't make it through the severe winter conditions that are to follow - This very thing happened on land we were not able to irrigate last year (fall '78) - we had several hundred acres that we had no crop on due to this type of condition. Growth of the plant due to application of the water is the Steve Glaser Requirement that is essential!
