Remarks: All of the above applicants are owners of undivided interests in all of the property upon which the springs arise, and are all related. The property on which the springs arise have belonged to the family for eighty-five years. Dr. Blair Holcomb has constructed a house on the property and Dr. Roger Holcomb and family intend to build thereon in the future. At the present time they have temporary quarters. No irrigation is contemplated, aside from domestic lawns and gardens. The purpose of this application is to guarantee enough water for the domestic supplies of the two families and is not intended as a waiver of any vested right the applicants may have by reason of their long ownership of the premises.
