Remarks: At time the Lesia R Henry & Chas. Alchult ditch was constructed a dam was made at point of diversion, the dam being about three feet high and about 100 feet long. This past winter the most of this dam went out with high water. Now, it would be less work to extend the ditch on up the river about 250 feet to the next riffle and bring the bottom of the ditch down on a level with the river bed and use no dam at all except in extreme low water, then very small temporary one. We would be doing no one any injury. Would not pass above any other ditch with the extension, but would be good for all concerned. The extension of the ditch would be made on vacant Government land. The other parties interested in the ditch want to make this change, and I would like written permission to make the change. When change is made in the ditch the point of diversion will be as shown on the maps accompanying this application.
