This water rises in a gravel stratum and is fed by the rains and irrigation of the upland country to the south. It was recently discovered by the county digging for road gravel. The county must drain the pit to work the gravel and the School Board has need of water for a recently purchased tract for the High School and for other school uses. Before developing the water, however, the School Board desires to obtain a legal right to the water flowing now which is about 8 miners inches and to what may be developed by the future operations of the County. The School Board has need of considerable water as the City is short, and it can well make use of all the water that may be developed, while the county must get rid of the water. Hence the application for permit to appropriate. There is no other probable need that this water can serve but this and hence the application for a larger amount than is allowed by the State for irrigation purposes. The piping and distribution of the water will cost probably more than $1000.
