Remarks: This is an old ditch and does not carry over thirty inches of water. It belongs to A. W. Ward, of Prairie City, Oregon, and applicant, has procured a contract with said owner, wherein applicant, for a certain consideration, is given the right to run this water there through. Such ditch crosses above the lands of applicant, and applicant will, when and where necessary, enlarge this ditch in an amount necessary to carry the above water. This is an ordinary small ditch with a dirt and rock dam sufficient to divert the water from the creek. This dam is never over two or three feet high.
