Dear Mr. and Mrs. Dangreau:

We have received your map, spring description sheet, fees of $60.00 and application for a permit to use 0.37 cubic foot of water per second from spring No. 2, with any deficiency in the available supply from spring No. 2 to be made up by an appropriation from the North Fork of Chetco River and any further deficiency to be made up from spring No. 1, for irrigation 29.3 acres and 0.005 cfs for domestic use for one family and 0.005 cfs for livestock watering from spring No. 1, with any deficiency in the available supply from spring No. 1 to be made up by an appropriation from spring No. 2. For reference, your application is No. 56141.

According to your spring description sheet, each spring has a maximum flow of 1 gallon of water per minute. If this is the case, it does not seem to be a logical supply for irrigation of 29.3 acres. Likewise, it would not seem logical to attempt to make up any deficiency out of North Fork of Chetco River from spring No. 1.

In addition, if spring No. 1 were to be used to make up a deficiency in spring No. 2 for irrigation, it would not be logical to make up a deficiency in spring No. 1 from spring No. 2 for livestock watering and domestic use.

Considering your proposed sources and the available supply from each, it would seem logical to request a specific quantity of water from each of the two springs for domestic use and livestock watering. The two gallons of water per minute available from each spring as indicated, along with some storage, would be adequate for domestic use for one family and livestock watering. Likewise, the North Fork Chetco River is the most probable supply of water for irrigation. Therefore, you should request a specific quantity of water to come from the river for irrigation only.

If it is intended to irrigate a lawn and garden from the two springs, this can be indicated on your application. Domestic use is considered to be a household use of water, but can include the irrigation of not to exceed $\frac{1}{2}$ acre lawn and non-commercial garden, if it occurs from the same sources and through the same system.
