

There will be approximately 600 feet of 2" pipe buried from the Fish and Wildlife approved access point marked "Access Location for intake" to the reservoir. This will be a passive feed pipeline, utilizing the gradual slope of the land as head to transfer water to the reservoir. The impact on the vegetation will be minimal as the entire pipeline will be below ground.

RECEIVED

AUG 16 2023

OWRD

