A hand-drawn map of a river system, likely a tributary of the Colorado River. The map is divided into a grid by a vertical line and a horizontal line. A central junction is marked with a circled '17' and a square containing a dot. Several river branches are shown, labeled with numbers: '11' at the top, '17.2' on the left branch, '17.4' on the right branch, '17.3' on the bottom-left branch, and '24-7-17.1' on the bottom-right branch. The text 'BASIN CREEK' is written along the right branch. Arrows indicate the flow direction of the water.
