Dear Sir:

I am in receipt of your letter instructing that I write you giving reason for requesting an extension of time for complete application of water to land, under permit No. 1982, which, without time is extended will expire October 1st, 1917, and am submitting facts as follows;

In order to apply water to remaining twenty-five acres of land required to complete the project, it was necessary to construct one-
-and-half mile of ditch through rock hard construction, and owing to the scarcity of labor and other work interfering, was unable to get completed in time to apply water this year, but will have no difficulty in getting finished in time to use next year, as have ditch nearly completed.

All other work is completed, and water has been applied to fifty acres of land.

Trusting that this is sufficient reason to entitle me to an extension of time, and thanking you for attention, I am,

Yours truly,

Permit No. 1982.

Dear Sir:

I am in receipt of your letter of the 18th instant in regard to the notices of the progress of work under your permit No. 1982. I will call your attention to the fact that you had two permits from this office. Permit No. R 273, covered the construction of your reservoir, and I find that the required notices have been filed under this permit and a final water right certificate has been issued, being No. 1251, covering the reservoir.

Your permit No. 1982, covered the appropriation of water from Dry Gulch for the irrigation of 75 acres of land, and I presume the stored water was also to be used. However, the permit covered the construction of the irrigation system, dams, headgates, ditches, etc., and was separate from the reservoir permit, and blanks were attached to the permit for your use in submitting the notice of beginning construction work, completion of construction work and complete application of water, similar to those enclosed. According to the terms of this permit construction work on your ~~distribution system~~ was required to begin on or before May 20, 1915, be completed on or before June 1, 1916, and the water applied to the irrigation of the entire 75 acres of land on or before October 1, 1917. If the foregoing terms of this permit have been complied with, I would suggest that you file the notice of beginning construction work and the notice of completion of construction work, and the notice of complete application of water may be filed October 1, 1917, if the entire area has been irrigated by that date.

Trusting this will give you the desired information and that you will be able to place your permit in good standing, I am,

Very respectfully,

Dear Sir:

I have your letter of the 14th, informing me that notice of the progress of my construction work had not been filed in that office, and I do not understand this as I felt certain that I had been very prompt and careful in making my annual report, but as it is possible that the report did not reach you, I hasten to rectify any error by making out new report,

I trust that the delay in recording these reports will not delay final proof. Kindly inform me if so.

Wish to say that the dam work was completed in 1914, and have applied water to 40 acres of land, but owing to the fact that a part of the ditching had to be done through rock and hard digging, have been unable to complete same.

If there is anything that I have overlooked in complying with the law in regard to reports, would be very glad if you will let me know, as it is probable that I do not understand what is required of me in that respect.

Permit No. 1982.

Dear Sir:

I am in receipt of your letter of the 11th instant transmitting a letter from the State Engineer requesting that you file the notices showing the progress of the work under your permit No. 1982 before he would recommend an extension of time. You will understand that this permit covers the use of 0.94 second foot of water for the irrigation of 75 acres of land and according to the terms of the permit construction work was required to begin on or before May 20, 1915, be completed on or before June 1, 1916, and the water applied to the project on or before October 1, 1917. No notices have been filed in this office showing that construction work was begun prior to May 20, 1915, or that construction work was completed on or before June 1, 1916, although a notice of complete application of water to beneficial use was filed June 24, 1916, showing that water had been applied to 40 acres of land.

You will understand that unless actual construction work was begun within one year from the date of the approval of the application, or prior to May 20, 1915, the rights under the permit have lapsed as this requirement is fixed by statute and the State Water Board has no authority to grant extensions of time in which to begin construction work under a permit. All reports of the progress of the work under a permit should be filed with the State Water Board but the application for an extension of time is usually recommended by the State Engineer, who is President of the Board, and approved by the Board.

Trusting this will give you the desired information and that you will be able to file the required notices, I am,

Your letter of the 18th inst. to Mr. Lewis relative to annual notice of construction work under Mr. Jackson Horton's permits, has been referred to this office for reply.

A complete set of the blanks, with a letter of instruction, was attached to Mr. Horton's permits when sent to him by the State Engineer. This is done in the case of every permit that leaves that office, and as ^{the} proper number of blanks, (which varies with the extent of the works to be constructed) is always attached, it is advisable to use those, rather than secure extra blanks. In case Mr. Horton has lost or mislaid them, however, I enclose additional blanks for his use, together with printed letter of instructions which accompanies each permit when issued.
