Dear Mrs. Clay:

Your notice of Beginning of Construction for the project described in Permits Numbered R-8394 and 46615 have been received.

By law, a substantial beginning of construction of the water system must be made within one year after issuance of the permit. Under the terms of the permit, this date has been set as June 17, 1983.

If the date given on your notice is correct, your permits are not valid and will have to be canceled. Since this is the same date as the day you signed the statement, perhaps the information was placed in error.

Also, you will have to go into detail and describe the area cleared and grubbed which will be inundated by the ponds, length and height of dams constructed, length and diameter of out-let pipes purchased, length and size of ditches constructed, and anything else pertaining to the ponds accomplished on or before June 17, 1983.

The notice is being returned for correction and additional information.

While permits may be issued in approval of your applications, this does not give you the right to trespass or use ditches if privately owned and controlled by others. You must seek approval of the owners of the ditches before using them.

The land which you intend to irrigate must be shown on the map. Please show the land to be irrigated on your map and state the number of acres to be irrigated in each quarter-quarter section. The information in the applications and on the map must be in agreement. Also, please state the location of diversion #3 on your map.

In Items 3 and 4 of Application R-61295, please give the details for both dams. Also, in Items 8 and 9, please state definite amounts. You should list the total amount of water to be stored in Item 8, then break it down to the amount of water to be stored in each reservoir.
