We have received your check for $10 along with a request to assign registration statement GR-2543.

Our records show the statement to be in the names of Marvin D. and Audrey A. Westfall. Audrey will also have to sign the assignment form. It is returned for this reason.

Incidentally, the statement only claimed the use of water from a well to irrigate 14 acres. The irrigation season is April 1 through September 30.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. French:

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter of January 7th, inquiring of your well registration certificate. In review of your statement we have noted that it appears to be in good order. However, it will be some time before we will be able to issue you your certificate of registration.

At present we are processing statements in the 1800-1900 series and are able to prepare 20-30 statement per day. Therefore, it will be several months before we get to your registration number 2685. You should receive your certificate of registration sometime in the spring.

Very truly yours,
