Inspection

On Tuesday Sept 14, 1965 I talk to Lawrence Miller who is the foreman for the Allied Cattle Co at the Roaring Springs Ranch. He said that their sources of water were as shown on the map accompanying A# 22104 with the exception of the water hole in sec #29. Allied Cattle Co. has ^{had} no interest in this hole since he has been with the organization (about 18 mos.)

I talked to a man living accross the road from the water hole in sec #29 and he said that it had not been used for 8 to 10 years. Lynn does not know who owns this.

The survey ~~is~~ that Tom Lauer made seems to be accurate. The tie points that appear to be causing the confusion are ~~arbitrary~~ arbitrary points selected along the road to ~~break~~ break the survey into 2 pieces as he appeared to be running out of space on his sheet.

After a vist to the area it appears that points #1 and #2 along road are common point to tie Survey A# 22104 to A# 22102

The Tie points #1, #2 and #3 appear to be an abandoned attempt to break the survey into 3 pieces.
