On April 24, 2025, the pump test for this permit was rejected for the test not being included on the Department forms and other missing information. On December 9, 2025, this information was provided and the test was re-evaluated. This test has now been approved.

Approved pump test letters will be digitally posted to the water right in WRIS; all other pump test letters will be mailed to permit holder.

Please contact me if you have any questions.
