Dear Sir:

Your notice of complete application of water under Permit No. 6561 as submitted with your letter dated May 12th, 1930 indicates that you have not yet made actual application of the water to the land. Although you have the ditches completed and the land prepared for irrigation, it is not proper for you to submit this notice of complete application or to expect to make final proof until you have actually used water on the 10 acres described.

For the above reason, I am assuming that the notice submitted is premature and am returning it to you together with a new form for submitting notice of complete application of water at the proper time.

Dear Sir:

This will acknowledge receipt of Notice of Complete Application of Water under Permit No. 6561. I note your statement that you intend to level more land this winter so that the water will do more next year. If such is the case, it would appear that the Notice of Complete Application of Water should not at this time be filed. I am therefore enclosing a new blank which may be filled out and filed when the water has actually been applied to the land you intend to irrigate under the permit.

An extension of time has been granted under Permit No. 6561 until October 1st, 1930, within which to completely apply the water to the proposed use. If you will require more time to complete your development you should make application for further time at the expiration of this extension.

Dear Sir:

The statements made in your letter of October 23rd indicate that you are exercising reasonable diligence in the completion of the appropriation described in Permit #6561. We realize that where land requires considerable leveling, which is expensive, it is not always possible for a permittee to complete the development in the specified time.

I am considering your letter as an application for an extension of time, and this is to advise you that your time limit for complete application of water is being extended until October 1st, 1929.

Dear Sir:

In your letter of May 14th you stated that the flood which occurred there this spring washed out a considerable length of ditch which you constructed under your Permit No. 7297, and also considerable damage was done to the works described in your Permit No. 6561.

In order that our records may be kept in proper form, you should submit the Notice of Beginning of Construction under your Permit No. 7297 even though the ditch was washed out. This will place your permit in good standing and you will have until June 1, 1928, to complete the construction without asking for an extension of time.

Your application for an extension under Permit No. 6561 has been carefully considered and you will be allowed until June 1, 1928, to complete construction work, and until October 1, 1928, to completely apply the water to a beneficial use.

Reference is made to Water Permit 6561 applied for by H E Haefner for water from an unnamed spring for stock watering and irrigation purposes. I have made two small diversion ditches from this spring and am irrigating part of the land that is to be irrigated with the surplus. The time limit expires June 1, 1926 and I would like this extended as I am unable to get all the land properly leveled by this time. I have leveled over 15 acres of adjoining land and find that I need more time to get this area in shape to fully utilize the surplus water from this spring above that needed for stock watering.
