Mr. Giottonini,

I have put together water rights certificates that may apply to the property you have purchased. Some of the water rights are adjudicated rights (pre 1909 priority date) while others are permit rights (post 1909 priority date). I have also included two maps showing adjudicated rights and permit rights (please note: maps included are not legal documents). If you have questions about the water rights certificates please feel free to contact me. I am hesitant to say which water rights in certain quarter quarters containing multiple owners apply to your property as this process would require a survey by a certified water right examiner.

Regards,

Joel T. Clark
