Dear Sirs:

Enclosed is a copy of the "Chronological order" you requested during your visit to our place today concerning S.H.R. #9.

Also, this letter is to request that S.H.R. #9 be listed in my name, Doris L. Matthews. My husband, Ivan M. Matthews was killed in a motor vehicle accident in British Columbia, Canada, on July 10, 1991. Our real & other property was listed in both our names so lawyer advised that it would not have to go thru probate. The Court house records are being changed to just my name using my middle name initial, "L", instead of maiden name initial "I" as I usually sign.

Thank you.

Yours truly,
Doris L. Matthews

CONTACT: MRS. DORIS I. MATTHEWS AND HER SON
BY: DON KNAUER AND DWIGHT FRENCH

We meet with Mrs. Doris I. Matthews and her son. They told us the following:

#3) Amount 0.045 cfs = domestic = 33%
stock = 25%
irrigation = remainder

0.045 x 33% = 0.015	$0.015 / 2 = 0.0075$
0.045 x 25% = 0.011	$0.011 / 2 = 0.0055$
0.045 x 42% = 0.019
TOTAL = 0.045 cfs / 2.5 acres = 0.009 / 1/2 ac

$\begin{array}{r} 0.045 \\ - 0.009 \\ \hline 0.036 \end{array}$

They explained the chronological history of the Ivan Matthews place and showed it written out. I suggested they send us a copy.

At present there are three houses on the water system for domestic use. Two houses use began prior to 1909 and one house use began in 1955.

There are two acres of irrigation begun in 1870 with a change in point of diversion and place of use in 1907.

They said the answer to #4) is:

1870 = Domestic, stock, 2.0 acres irrigation
1887 = 0.5 acre irrigation, domestic, stock

Mrs. Matthews' son showed us the diversion points and use. It appears the changes in diversion points' and place of use would not injure any other water rights. The changes took place on their property.

NOTE: See maps by J. Gosson to understand change in place of use and point of diversion.

SUPPLEMENTAL SHEET #1

General Information Regarding Points of Diversion

Point of Diversion #1 (1870-1907)

The works consisted of an irrigation ditch. Faint traces of the ditch remain, however, its actual location at the point of diversion and its terminus could not be precisely located as they were obliterated. Some evidence of the house exists and several fruit trees (apple and pear) remain alive and standing. No evidence of the barn could be found. Its location is estimated. The ditch had a flat, or nearly flat, bottom approximately 12 inches or less across, and had side slopes of approximately 1:1. The grade was approximately two feet per thousand feet. The capacity was approximately 0.06 ft.³/sec. The use consisted of domestic for one family, irrigation of two acres, and stockwater for an estimated 35 sheep, 6 pigs, 80 chickens and turkeys, 10 cows with calves and 4 horses.

Point of Diversion #2 (1887-1944)

The original works (1887-1929) consisted of a combination of wood flume and ditches. Traces of the ditch remain. No trace of the flume could be found. The flume was flat bottom, approximately eight inches wide, with vertical sides approximately six inches high. The ditch had a flat, or nearly flat bottom of approximately 12 inches or less across, and had side slopes of approximately 1:1. The grade was approximately two feet per thousand feet. The capacity was approximately 0.06 ft.³/sec. The use consisted of domestic for one family, irrigation of four acres, and stockwater. It is also believed that this diversion served a sawmill, its crew, oxen, etc. The system was reconstructed in 1929, eliminating the ditches. The alignment was changed slightly due to the conversion to all flume.

Point of Diversion #3 (1930-1951)

The works consisted of a water ram and 3 inch diameter iron receiving pipe and a 3/4 inch diameter iron delivery pipe. The elevation difference between the ram and the place of use is estimated to be 40 feet, or less. The capacity was approximately 0.01 ft.³/sec. The use consisted of domestic for one family, irrigation of 1/2 acre, and stockwater. The water ram remains on the property, but not at its working location.

General Information Regarding Points of Diversion

Point of Diversion #4 (1932-1955)

The works consisted of an irrigation ditch. No traces of the ditch remain. The ditch had a flat, or nearly flat, bottom approximately 12 inches or less across and had side slopes of approximately 1:1. The capacity is estimated to have been 0.02 ft.³/sec. The use consisted of the irrigation of approximately 1/2 acre.

Point of Diversion #5 (1944-1971)

The works consisted of a one inch gravity pipeline. The grade was approximately 50 feet per 1000 feet. The capacity was approximately 0.03 ft.³/sec. Portions of the pipeline remain. The use consisted of domestic, irrigation of four acres, and stockwater.

Point of Diversion #6 (1951-Present)

The works consist of a directly connected 3/4 horsepower electric motor and centrifugal pump. This works replaced the water ram at the same location. The use consists of domestic for three families (one family from 1951 to present, two families from 1971 to present and three families from 1976 to present), and stockwater. A 3/4 inch P.V.C. pipe serves as the delivery system. The maximum elevation difference between the pump and place of use is approximately 45 feet.

including up to 1/2 acre of noncommercial lawn and garden, is being submitted.

General Information Regarding Use and Places of Use

IRRIGATION

Maps #1 through 5 show irrigated parcels as being rectangular in shape. Some variation to the rectangular shapes may have actually existed. Emphasis was placed in attempting to determine areas rather than actual shapes, as little physical evidence remained in most cases.

STOCKWATER

The species and number of animals have varied, however the aggregate at any given time would not consume more than the minimum stockwater allocation. With the exception of map #12, stockwater locations are intended to portray a history of stockwater use. Physical evidence of actual locations no longer exists at some locations.

DOMESTIC, INCLUDING UP TO 1/2 ACRE OF NONCOMMERCIAL LAWN OR GARDEN

At least one garden for home consumption has served the farm continuously from 1870 to the present time.

Miscellaneous additional outbuildings at various locations have also served the farm. Some of their locations either are not known, or not shown on the application maps for purposes of clarity.

Portland, then worked his way south finally landed in Camas Valley.

Alston Martindale, William P. Day, and Abraham Patterson were the first three to locate and take up donation land claims. Alston's first house was a log cabin by the middle fork of the Coquille River. This house later served as the valley's first school, (1861).

Alston married Nancy Katherine Fitzhugh Shambrook on September 1, 1855, at Garden Valley, Douglas County. Nancy had one daughter, Austria Shambrook.

As a protection against the Indians, Alston built his second home into a fort with a stockade 100 feet square. All the settlers came to the fort during Indian raids. After the fort burned, Alston built a third house where he and Nancy kept the first stage station. Alston served as postmaster from June 12, 1879, until December 3, 1898. He also served in Company B, 2nd regiment Oregon Mounted Volunteers, under Captain Nolan and Captain Buoy.

The Martindale children were: Ella Mira (1857-1864), Tulla Ann (1859-1936), Henry (1861-1914), Robert Lee (1863-1951), William Alston (1866-1888), Nettie Jane (1868-1900), Nancy Violet (1871-1930), James Dickey (1874-1946), Rolla (1877-1911).

Still living on a part of the old donation land claim are: a granddaughter and her husband, Welcome and James Combs; a great-granddaughter and her husband, Sharon and Robert Moore; and two great-grandsons, Bradley Allen and Bret Eugene Ross. Martindale Combs

John Matthews was born in 1750 in the New England area of the United States of America. He married Rachel Benedict on October 28, 1772 in Danbury, Connecticut. According to the Benedict Genealogy, Rachel was the daughter of John and Lydia Gregory Benedict. They had thirteen children including William and Jeremiah, who was the youngest. John served in the Revolutionary War and then moved to the area around Burlington, Vermont where he died well advanced in years. Rachel died there in 1797.

Jeremiah Matthews, son of John and Rachel, was born August 24, 1793 possibly at Williston, Vermont and died January 1, 1860 at Stowe, Vt. He was buried at the Matthews lot at Underhill Flats, Vt. The marker is still there and in good condition.

Jeremiah married Nancy Farnum (Farnham) about 1822 in Williston, Vermont. Nancy was born in 1803 at Waterbury, Vermont and died on January 25, 1873 at the age of 70 years. She was buried beside Jeremiah, according to the story in the Genealogical and Family History of the State of New Hampshire, Volume III, 1908.

Jeremiah was left motherless at the age of three and was given by his father to be cared for by Linus Atwater, a tavern keeper at Williston, Vermont with whom he lived until he was 28 years of age. He then became a partner with his brother, William, in a retail Hat and Fur Store in Burlington, Vermont. He later went into farming for the remainder of his life.

Jeremiah served in the War of 1812 in Tyler's 3rd. Regiment of Vermont Militia, Capt. Roswell Morton's Co. Jeremiah and Nancy had nine children, the eldest being Albert Atwater followed by Mary, Rachel, George Benedict, Byron Dexter, Jane E., Lyman, Ellen M. and Martha.

ALBERT ATWATER MATTHEWS, son of Jeremiah and Nancy, was born November 11, 1822 near Williston, Chittenden County, Vermont.

Albert traveled west over the Oregon Trail in 1850 and arrived in Portland, Oregon Territory, on October 4, 1850. He kept a diary of his journey which has been lost, possibly in 1927 at the time the old Matthews family home was destroyed by fire in Reston, Oregon.

Albert settled on Donation Land Claim #832 on November 8, 1852 in the North Umpqua area adjacent to the land later to become Donation Land Claim of Elijah F. Whisler.

In the 1960's Douglas county located the Whistlers Bend County Park on the site of the Elijah F. Whisler's donation land claim.

Albert married Mary Jane Guild on June 8, 1853 in Washington county, Oregon Territory. Mary Jane and her twin sons died at their birth on August 4, 1854. It is assumed that they were buried in the area.

Records show that Albert was the clerk of the Oak Creek School District in 1854. Albert sold his claim and purchased land in the Reston area. He is mentioned as the man to organize the first Sunday School at Reston. He is listed in "The History of Southern Oregon" by A.G. Walling in 1884 as follows: "Albert A. Matthews lives in Flournoy Valley; is a merchant and farmer; was born in Williston, Chittenden Co., Vermont; was married in 1859 to Alice B. Whisler."

Flournoy Valley lies adjacent to the now Reston area at the foot of the Coast Range Mountains. Albert was an assessor for the county, a schoolteacher, a merchant and farmer. He delivered meat on a regular route, door to door, during the harvest season. When the railroad through Roseburg was being built he had a tent Store and moved it along with the progress of the railroad. On September 25, 1859 Albert married Barbry Alice Whisler, daughter of Elijah F. Whisler and Sarah Van Buskirk Whisler. (See the Whisler story elsewhere in this book.) Albert Atwater Matthews died April 8, 1900. His wife, Barbry Alice Matthews, died February 5, 1927.

They are buried in the Lookingglass Cemetery.

NATIVE OF DOUGLAS COUNTY

Matthews, Arthur M., born November 26, 1890, at what they called the old Mountain House, now known as Iverson Park. At that time it was a stage stop and his Grandma Wilson operated the telegraph there.

He was the third in a family of ten children born to George Edwin and Mary (Mamie) Elizabeth Wooden Matthews. Grandma Wilson and Grandma Gurney assisted in his birth.

Remembers living in Coos County for a couple of winters then returned to homestead place at Reston. They farmed and made posts and shakes — there was a good market for them at that time. A sawmill was put in and oxen were used to log with, later they used mules.

George Edwin Matthews

Father died when Arthur was 17. He helped out at home until he was twenty one. At that time he rented the McClintock place, a nearby farm and raised veatch hay, oats, wheat, turkeys, sheep, pigs and cattle — farmed with two and three horse teams. During World War I the Army purchased three horses from him at $160. apiece.

Married Margaret (Maggie) Conn on October 15, 1917. She was a sister to brother Otto's wife, Amy. They were married in the house at Melrose built by her brother, H.P. Conn, from lumber obtained at the mill on the Matthews' place at Reston.

They had five children, Lillian, Dale, Ivan, Elaine, and Virginia. Lived and farmed in the Melrose, Roseburg, Umpqua, and Reston area. Lost their home at Umpqua to fire in 1922. Rebuilt by Cleve Miller with assistance from Otto Mohr and George Gurney.

They were renting and farming the land where the State Office Building now stands when their daughter, Lillian, was born. He raised broccoli for many years there and at Melrose and Umpqua. They cured their own bacon and hams from animals they raised. Arthur worked in prune dryers during harvest season for forty years. After son, Ivan, was discharged from the Navy, they bought a 9N Ford Tractor and this lightened the work load considerably. Son, Dale, also served in the Navy.

The family enjoyed trips to the coast, family and community gatherings, hunting trips to Eastern Oregon, and trips back over the mountain from their place to look after their cattle, grazing on government land.

A highlight in later years was an auto trip to Fairbanks, Alaska, to visit Dale and family. They were accompanied by Ivan, Lillian, Elaine and families, taking camping equipment and three cars.

Wife died in 1974 at age 76 and is buried in Lookingglass Cemetery. Arthur lived with Ivan and family for over a year and spent time also with Virginia and family for while as he was confined to a wheelchair from the crippling effects of arthritis and related problems. He is now 91 years old and living at the Grandview Care Home in Roseburg. Mrs. Ivan Matthews

FRANK LYMAN MATTHEWS FAMILY

Frank Lyman was the oldest of five sons born to Albert Atwater Matthews and Barbary Alice Whisler. He was born October 22, 1860 in Douglas County, Oregon and died March 27, 1901, at the Matthews home place in Reston. He was buried in the Lookingglass, Oregon, Cemetery.

He married Harriet Jane Andrews in 1889 or 1890 in Virginia City, Nevada.

After being away from Douglas County for some years, Frank had come back to help his mother take care of the place. Frank died the year after his father, and Harriet was left with eight children, the oldest ten and the youngest three weeks. See the book, "Our Matthews, Van Buskirk and Whisler Ancestors," compiled by Rosalie Viola Matthews Flint and Alice May Matthews Tesh in the Douglas County Museum Library.

Albert (Abb) Lafayette Matthews was born May 14, 1897 at McClay, Oregon, the sixth child and oldest son of Frank Lyman and Harriet (Hattie) Matthews. Abb served in the U.S. Navy in WW I and married Neva Blanche Pickens December 24, 1921 at Roseburg, Oregon. They lived fifty-two years in the Missouri Bottom (Tri-City) area of Douglas County, where Abb farmed.

Abb and Neva had two children: Mabel Jane, born January 27, 1928 and Robert Clayton, born September 23, 1932.

Mabel Jane Matthews married Webster Briggs (see Ernel Briggs Family this book) June 19, 1948.

Their children are: Gerald, born April 9, 1949; Matthews, Lee, born May 25, 1959; William Franklin, born September 23, 1960; and David Alan, born June 18, 1964. Robert Clayton Matthews was born 23 born Christmas Day, 1921, at Umpqua. Lived there and attended first year of school at Coles Valley School. Was third of five children born to Arthur M. and Margaret Conn Matthews.

Family moved in 1929 to the four hundred acre homestead at Reston, west of Lookingglass, part of which was homesteaded by Ivan's great-grandfather, George Edwin Matthews. They raised various crops, livestock, and sold some timber.

Ivan, Clark, Doris and Rick Matthews, 1959

Ivan attended Reston Grade School and graduated from Lookingglass High School in 1941. He played basketball all four years and has remained an ardent fan of local teams.

Family returned to Umpqua in 1941 where Ivan became acquainted with and later married the "girl next door," Doris Leonard.

He entered the Navy in 1942, training at "boot camp" in San Diego. He was assigned to the submarine tender, U.S.S. Sperry. Served in the South Pacific and Asian Theatres, visiting many islands and Australia.

After a leave of absence in October, 1944, when he presented Doris with an engagement ring, was assigned to a troop transport, the U.S.S. Lavaca. His ship pulled into Tokyo Harbor alongside the U.S.S. Missouri on V.J. Day, September 2, 1945, where the peace treaty was being signed.

Was discharged a Carpenter's Mate 3/C in December and he and Doris were married in pastor's study at Presbyterian Church on December 7, 1945, with both their parents in attendance.

Doris was born in Vernon, Texas, May 8, 1925, second of eight children born to Lloyd and Thelma Rippstein Leonard. They came to Oregon in a Model T. Ford when Doris was only three months old. She attended grade school at Millwood, the school at Sutherlin and Roseburg. After graduation in 1943, was interviewed and hired by J.H. Booth to work in their family owned Douglas National Bank.

Ivan and Doris lived in a cabin near his parents until February 1946, when they purchased fifty acres in Lookingglass Valley. Ivan's employment included Joelson Lumber Co., Roseburg Sand and Gravel, and Umpqua Plywood Co.

They had two sons, Arthur Clark and Rickey Lloyd. Clark married Michelle Chartier, they have three children: Rebekah, Jacob, and Elizabeth. Rick married and later divorced Mary Gazley. They have two children, Jennifer and Joshua.

Ivan and family spent fourteen months in Fairbanks, Alaska, where brother Dale, lived for many years. Ivan worked in power plant at Ladd Air Force Base and Doris at Alaska National Bank. Were there when Statehood was approved for Alaska in June, 1958.

Returned home to farming and logging. Doris worked for short while for telephone office, until First National Bank of Roseburg opened it's doors in May, 1959. She retired from the Winston Branch in February, 1972. (Name had been changed to Douglas National Bank.)

Bought homestead from parents at Reston, built new house, and have been logging the marketable timber since.

Brother, Dale, and sisters, Lillian Kenworthy, Elaine Becker, and Virginia Willis all live within seventeen miles of each other in the Roseburg area. Mother died April 6, 1974 at age 76, father is in Grandview Care Home, age 91. Mrs. Ivan Matthews

JOE MATTHEWS

Joe Matthews was born in Reston, Oregon, a descendant of the Whistler and Wooden families.

Sarah Van Buskirk and her parents, William and Margaret, came from Ohio, crossing the plains in 1852. Margaret died on the way and was buried in the Blue Mountains midway between the Grande Ronde and Umatilla Rivers.

Sarah and Elijah Whistler were married and lived in the Glide area. They had seven children, one of whom was Barbry Alice. She married Albert Atwater Matthews who had come to Oregon from Pennsylvania. They were married in 1859 and are buried in the Lookingglass cemetery. They homesteaded in the Reston area and farmed for a living. The original homestead is still owned by descendants of the family.

Barbry and Albert had five sons. George E., one of the sons, married Mary Elizabeth (Mamie) Wooden in 1806. They continued to live on the family farm.

George died in 1908 of a ruptured appendix and Mamie raised their ten children, listed as follows:

Otto C., b. 1881, married Amy Conn, children — Kilane, Catherine, and twins Ruby and Ruth.

George E., b. 1888, married Zelma Finch, children — Doris and Wilma.

Arthur M., b. 1890, married Margaret Conn, children — Lillian, Dale, Ivan, Elaine and Virginia.

Lillian, b. 1892, married A.L. Bushnell, no children.

Albert A., b. 1895, married Grace Bonnin, children — Shirley Lee and Micheal.

Claude, b. 1897, married Josephine Blinco, no children.

Joseph S., b. 1899, married Edna Perrin, children — Bonnie Jean and Arthur E. (Bill).

Ruth, b. 1904, died 1929.

Wallace W., b. 1906, married Edith Ely, children — twin daughters Berneice and Deneice.

Ralph, b. 1907, married Beulah Emmett, children — Mary Lou and Patricia.

The doctor who came from Roseburg to tend George drove the first automobile that Joe had ever seen.

Joe has always loved music. When he was about four years old his brother Claude would take him to a nearby lumber camp "cook shack" and Joe would sing for cookies. Besides singing, Joe played the harmonica, fiddle and piano.

He farmed for several years, then worked as grader operator for Douglas County, maintaining and building roads. Later he worked for the city and a private logging company as grader operator.

In his active life Joe liked to hunt, fish and garden, and he knew a great deal about the plant and animal life of Douglas County.

During the later part of Joe's life he suffered from rheumatoid arthritis and because of its crippling effects was denied the activities he enjoyed. He died in March, 1982. Arthur Matthews

I am Ivan Matthews' sister and I am writing this to confirm the water usage from Rock Creek that flows through Ivan Matthews' property in sections 1 and 2 of Township 28S Range 8W.

WATER RESOURCES DEPT
HELM, OREGON

Our great grandfather, A. A. Matthews, homesteaded and built a home on a 160 acre portion of this property in 1870. A few years later his son, George E. Matthews (our grandfather) homesteaded and built a home on another 160 acre portion. Later, the family acquired an additional 80 acres to make a total of 400 acres. Since 1870 one or another of our family members have lived on this property with the exception of two years during 1942-1944.

My father said A. A. Matthews flumed water from the creek to supply his household and irrigate his garden. George Matthews built his house adjacent to the creek and water for the house was carried in buckets, but irrigation water was also flumed from the creek.

During the 1890's and the early 1900's there was a sawmill on this property powered by Rock Creek.

I was born there in 1936 and at that time there was a water powered hydraulic ram that pumped water for our house and garden.

In 1944 my father instated a gravity flow water system, taking water through a one inch pipe, from the creek above the house. He raised a large vegetable garden, everbearing strawberries for market and also irrigated some pasture.

In 1951 he bought a 2hp electric irrigation pump and since then the owners have irrigated at least five acres of garden and pasture. At the present time the creek also furnishes three homes with water.

This is a statement supporting claims of water usage from Rock Creek flowing through the Ivan Matthews' property, formerly Arthur M. Matthews, formerly George E. Matthews and Albert A. Matthews, located at 6987 Coos Bay Wagon Road, Roseburg, Oregon. (Reston Area) WATER RESOURCES DISTRICT 1, SALEM, OREGON

I, Elaine Elizabeth Matthews Becker, was born 12-16-25 to Arthur M. and Margaret A. Matthews at Umpqua, Oregon. At that time I had two older brothers, Dale and Ivan, an older sister, Lillian, and a younger sister, Virginia, was born in 1936.

In 1929 our family moved to the home place at Reston, Oregon. Rock Creek flowed across our place supplying us with water for:
(1) household usage at first carried by bucket, later pumped by a "ram";
(2) livestock, turkeys, & chickens; and (3) irrigation - carried by troughs & ditches.

In the fall of 1941 our family moved back to Umpqua. In the spring of 1944 our parents and Virginia returned to the place at Reston. Usage of the water from Rock Creek resumed as before but soon the ram was replaced with an electric pump; now they could also irrigate orchards, pastures & yard.

Eventually, Dale & Ivan bought the place from our parents (who continued to live there); soon Ivan bought out Dale's share; Ivan then built a home on the place for his family; later a mobile home was set up for a son's home.

To date, our parents are gone but Ivan & his wife, Doris, and their family still live in the three homes on the place and are still using the water from Rock Creek for their household, livestock, & irrigation.

I have known the Matthews since 1933. We were in school together and spent many a night together. and Many hours at the old homestead. We would listen to the Ram push the water into holding tanks and we had gravity fed water from the creek to supply the house and also to water the garden and stock.

I, A. Dale Matthews, wish to verify the use of water from Rock Creek that flows through the portion of the Matthews' ranch described in Homestead Certificate #2659, application #5262, issued to George E. Matthews, his heirs and assigns, containing one hundred sixty acres, and filed in General Land Office records Book 25, page 91, Douglas County, Oregon.

Also, the parcel described in Certificate #4637 filed in Book 25, page 526 of General Land Office records of Douglas County, Oregon. This parcel was issued to A. A. Matthews, his heirs and assigns, and contained one hundred and fifty eight acres and sixty three hundredths of an acre.

I was born April 3, 1920, and lived on this place with my parents, Arthur and Margaret Matthews, and a brother and three sisters, until about 1938. We obtained water for household use by carrying in buckets from the creek. Water for garden, yard, and crops was brought down by flume with gravity flow for sub-irrigating. Livestock had access to the stream below the drinking water source.

In about 1930, we installed a ram at the creek for pumping water to the house -- a big improvement over carrying water up the steep bank to the house.

At the present time, there are three houses using water from the creek for domestic purposes, yards, crops, garden and livestock, using electric pumps.

As a relative of the Matthews family, I have been a visitor to their ranch at Reston many times in the past, dating back to about 1914.

The Matthews family has earned a good part of their livelihood from ranching and farming their acreage. Water from the stream running through their place has been vital to these activities, as well as being their source of water for household use for from one to three houses.

I recall hearing the ram operating to bring water up over the creek bank to the house.

This letter is written to substantiate the water usage from Rock Creek, flowing through that portion of the Matthews' ranch described in Homestead Certificate #2659, application #5262, issued to George E. Matthews, his heirs and assigns, containing one hundred sixty acres, and filed in General Land Office records Book 25, page 91, Douglas County, Oregon.

I, Wallace Matthews, was born on February 1, 1906, and lived most of my "growing up" years on this home place along with nine brothers and sisters.

My father, George E. Matthews, passed away on September 30, 1908, leaving my Mother and the family to earn a living as best they could on this acreage.

We depended on the water from Rock Creek, now known as Morgan Creek when it reaches Lookingglass. We carried by buckets for household use but dammed up and flumed by gravity flow to irrigate gardens, crops such as berries, corn, and sugar beets for market and feeding livestock. The livestock had access to the creek below the drinking water source.
