

Final Order

Application History

On March 8, 1990, the Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife submitted an application to the Department for an instream water right. On August 20, 1996, the Department issued a Proposed Final Order proposing to issue the certificate with conditions. The amount requested in the application exceeds the estimated average natural flow. Pursuant to OAR 690-077-0015(4) the amounts allowed during any time period were reduced to amounts not exceeding the estimated average natural flow occurring from the drainage basin.

On October 3, 1996, Oregon Cranberry Farmers Alliance submitted a protest to the Proposed Final Order. On February 21, 2012, the Oregon Cranberry Farmer's Alliance withdrew their protest.

The findings of fact and conclusions of law in the Proposed Final Order are incorporated into this Final Order.

The proposed use would not impair or be detrimental to the public interest.
