The Department is in receipt of your Request for assignment you submitted on the above referenced water right. As this is a perfected right, as evidenced by the certificate of water right, an assignment is not necessary. Oregon water law views a certificated right as appurtenant to the land for which it is issued. If you own the land, you own the water right associated with the land.

The Department does request that an ownership update be filed for perfected rights, when a change in ownership occurs. We will retain a copy of your request as an ownership update for our files.

I am returning your original request and the check you submitted. Thank you for notifying the Department of the ownership change.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey D. Pierceall
Water Right Customer Service

Enclosure: Original request and check
