Dear Mr. and Mrs. White:

On December 6, 1983 we received an application for an extension of time limits on your Permit Number G-9132. This application did not include the statutory fee in the amount of $100 as discussed in a telephone call on November 22, 1983. At that time I had advised you to go ahead and send the extension request and that we could wait until sometime in March to receive the fees.

We do need the fees from you now or a commitment that you will send them in the near future in order to maintain the permit in proper status. We will hold further action for a reasonable length of time pending your reply.

Sincerely,

Bruce A. Estes, Supervisor

*Virginia White called in 22 Nov 83.
She has filled out extension form and written letter, but does not have the $100 now. I told her we needed it by March at least and would not send form 100 in Jan. They have been attempting to get PCA loan. They need irr to feed Black Angus cattle. *

Dear Mr. and Mrs. White:

Your comment on the notice of Completion of Construction for the project described in Permit Number G-9132 has been noted.

Under the terms of the permit, adequate irrigation equipment for the project was to have been on hand by October 1, 1982. If this requirement was not met and you expect to have the system completed before next year, you should submit an application requesting an extension of time limits. A form for this purpose is enclosed. A one year extension of time can be granted provided the user can show diligence toward proceeding with the project.

Your notice is enclosed along with a new form.

Sincerely,

Thomas E. Shook
