

New Mexico Ground Water Association

When: January 17-18, 2014

Where: Marriott Pyramid
Albuquerque, NM

Cost: Unknown

Continuing Education Credit (CEC) for the courses that comprise this event have been assigned as follows:

- “Designing Production Wells to Optimize Performance & Efficiency” two (2) hours. The instructor was Kevin McGillicuddy, P.G., chief Hydrogeologist, Roscoe Moss Company. Two (2.0) CECs.
- “GPS Units: I Turned It On – Now What?” one (1) hour. The instructor was Kevin Meyers, NMOSE Hydrology Bureau. One (1.0) CEC.
- “Case Studies: Artesian Conditions w/No Prior Knowledge” one (1) hour. The presenter was Ryan Killingsworth, Holman’s GPS Trainer. One (1.0) CEC.
- “Excavation Law for Excavators” one (1) hour. The instructor was Gary R. Sloman, Executive Director of New Mexico One Call, Inc., dba NM811. Zero (0) CEC.
- “Wire Rope inspection, Safety & Federal Regulations” one (1) hour. The instructor was Don Detlefsen, industry expert on wire rope safety, inspection and Federal regulations. One (1.0) CEC in the Safety Category.