

Idaho Ground Water Association 2005 56th Annual Convention

The following courses have been approved for CECs as shown below:

- ◆ “Well Efficiency Is Not a Myth” - Approved for 1.5 CECs.
- ◆ “Earthquakes and their Effect on Groundwater” - Approved for one (1) CEC.
- ◆ “Basic Computers for Business Use” - Approved for one (1) CEC.
- ◆ “Computer Models for Water Management” - Approved for one (1) CEC.
- ◆ “GPS as a Field Tool” - Approved for one (1) CEC.
- ◆ “Pump Sizing and Installation” - Approved for 0.5 CEC.
- ◆ “Dealing With Disaster Roundtable” - Approved for one (1) CEC.
- ◆ “DOT - Old and New Regulations” - Approved for one (1) CEC.
- ◆ “Hydrogen Peroxide as an Option” - Approved for one (1) CEC.
- ◆ “Bioremediation” - Approved for one (1) CEC.
- ◆ “Well Design” - Approved for one (1) CEC.
- ◆ “Aquifer Storage and Recovery” - Approved for one (1) CEC.
- ◆ “Chemistry & Biology of Well Systems” - Approved for one (1) CEC.
- ◆ “Business Succession” - Approved for one (1) CEC.
- ◆ “Constant Pressure Systems” - Approved for 0.5 CEC.
- ◆ “Chemical Application” - Approved for one (1) CEC.
- ◆ “Profit and Loss” - Approved for one (1) CEC.
- ◆ “Water Well Conditioning” - Approved for one (1) CEC.
- ◆ “Case Histories” - Approved for one (1) CEC.

When: January 6-8, 2005

Location: DoubleTree Riverside
Boise, Idaho

Cost: $125 member
$150 non-member

Contact: Terese Bonney, IGWA (208) 524-2475 or igwa.info