

Oregon Ground Water Association 2005 Fall Convention

The following courses were approved for CECs:

- “Water Rights & Wells - placement of wells to protect future water rights” Laura Schroeder, Atty, Schroeder Law Offices P.C. Approved for one (1) CEC.
- “Continuing Education Update for Drillers and Cruising the Restructured OWRD Website” Kris Byrd and Bob Devyldere, Oregon Water Resources Department. Approved for one (1) CEC in the OR gw/well laws category.
- “Gadgets for Pump Technicians and More” Paul Christensen, Christensen Well Drilling. Approved for 0.5 CEC.
- “Under Reaming Systems Product Showcase.” Approved for two (2) CECs.
- “Dealing with Low-Producing Wells” Mark Scheufler, United Pipe & Supply Co. Approved for one (1) CEC.
- “Water Testing Equipment for Drillers” Steve Gesdahl, Always Pure Water Treatment Systems. Approved for one (1) CEC.
- “The Importance of Tax Lot Number and Other Well Location Information on a Well Report” Greg & Malia Kupillas, Pacific Hydro-Geology, Inc. Approved for one (1) CEC in the OR gw/well laws category.
- “Hands-on Motors & Controls” a panel. Approved for one (1) CEC.
- “Designing an Efficient Well” Al Smith, Johnson Screens. Approved for two (2) CECs.
- “The A-E and MW of Cement Grouting and Reporting” Steve Schneider. Approved for one (1) CEC in the OR gw/well laws category.

When: October 14-15, 2005

Location: Kah-Nee-Ta High Desert Resort & Casino

Cost: Members $125.00 for early registration
Non-member $145.00 for early registration for more details see contact below

Contact: Nancy Sippel, Administrative Coordinator, Oregon Ground Water Association telephone: (503) 390-7080 e-mail: nancy@ogwa.org web site: <<www.ogwa.org>>