

Review of Oregon Monitor Well and Water Supply Rules

Course Description:

Overview of Monitoring Well Rules by Greg McInnis

- Definitions of some of the terms relating to monitoring wells
- Difference between geotechnical holes and monitoring wells
- Competing (sic) of monitoring well reports and start cards
- Well Protection for monitoring wells
- Filter pack and seal requirements
- Abandonment of monitoring wells
- Direct push monitoring wells and Piezometers

Overview of Water Supply Wells by Robert Stadel

- Water Supply reports
- Sealing of supply wells and methods of placement of cement grout
- Filter pack wells with surface casing
- Filter pack wells without surface casing
- Methods of placement of grout and unhydrated bentonite

When: May 29, 2007, 7:30 a.m. breakfast
8:00 a.m. - 10:10 a.m.

Location: Hayden's Bar & Grill
8187 SW Tualatin-Sherwood Rd
Tualatin OR 97062

Cost: $35

Space limitation: 20 people

Contact: Greg McInnis, Boart Longyear 503 692-6400 to register or for more information.

Sponsor: Boart Longyear

This course has been assigned two (2) continuing education credits (CECs) in the OAR/ORS category by the Well Constructor Continuing Education Committee.