RULE SUMMARY

Establishes procedures in the Klamath Basin for the control of groundwater uses in the Off-Project Area for the benefit of senior surface water rights. The Off-Project Area is defined and limits the rule of application to the Sprague River basin, Williamson River basin, and the Wood River Valley, including Sevenmile Creek. The area of applicability is displayed in Attachment B in the draft rules.

The Agency requests public comment on whether other options should be considered for achieving the rule's substantive goals while reducing negative economic impact of the rule on business.
