

Idaho Ground Water Association 2009 Annual Convention

When: January 5-7, 2009

Where: Doubletree Riverside
Boise, Idaho

Cost: $125

Contact: Idaho Ground Water Association (IGWA) see web site: <http://www.igwa.info/> for more information

The courses for this convention have been assigned continuing education credits (CECs) as follows:

- “From Drilling Plan to Well Rating-Musings of a Hydrogeologist” two (2) hours, January 6, 2009. The instructor is Mike Krautkramer, Robinson/Noble. Two (2) CECs.
- “Understanding Your Well Problems (Part 1)” one (1) hour, January 6, 2009. The instructor is Dave Hansen, Design Water Technologies. One (1) CEC.
- “Understanding Your Well Problems (Part 2)” one (1) hour, January 6, 2009. The instructor is Dave Hansen, Design Water Technologies. One (1) CEC.
- “Simple Math for Drilling and Pump to Locate Air Pressure” one (1) hour, January 6, 2009. The instructor is Roger Buchanan, Andrew Well Drilling. One (1) CEC.
- “Pumps & Pump Design” one (1) hour, January 6, 2009. The instructor is Tim Farrell, SPF Water Engineering. 0.5 CEC.
- “Having Problems with Coliform Bacteria and Don’t Understand Why?” two (2) hours, January 7, 2009. The instructors are Paul Querna, PQ Products and Dave Hansen, Design Water Technologies. Two (2) CECs.
- “Drilling & Sealing Presentations” two (2) hours, January 7, 2009. The instructors are Stewart Krause, Wyo-Ben; Bob Oliver, CETCO; and Jack Sowers, Baroid. Two (2) CECs.
- “VFD General Discussion” one (1) hour, January 7, 2009. The instructor is Dykman Electric personnel. 0.5 CEC.
- “Surge Suppression/Absorption” one (1) hour, January 7, 2009. The instructor is Dykman Electric personnel. 0.5 CEC.